

Energy of Life[®] (EOL) Net-Neutral Ionic Acu-Wand

The Acu-Wand is the newest addition to the EOL[®] Net-Neutral Ionic Healing Tools Collection, developed exclusively by Aaron and Sue Singleton, founders of The Energy of Life and The Way To Balance, LLC Center for Advanced Healing and Training.

It is a small hand-held acupressure tool with both a pointed end and a blunt end. It is very effective for performing acupressure treatment on any acupressure points on the body.

The pointed end is used to stimulate the acupressure meridian points (the point may be gently hand filed if you prefer a softer point). Also, the Wand may be simply pointed at an area without touching it, in some cases, due to its very strong energy projection.

The blunt end may be placed against the skin to assist in pulling out blockages or detoxifying an area as needed.

This healing tool is especially effective for Master Points on the hands, feet, and ears. The Acu-Wand has been charged directly on the Net-Neutral Ion Generator for two weeks, to program and imbed these Ring of Oden configuration frequencies:

- M-1 All Meridian Stimulation, to assist in balancing all of the meridians.
- EC-2 All Chakra and Endocrine Balance, to assist in balancing the endocrine glands as well as the energetic aspect of the chakras.
- P-24 Reducing Hydrogen Ions, to assist in the release of the excess hydrogen that bonds chemicals and toxins in the tissue.

BENEFITS:

- Gentler on the healer's hands and fingers than traditional point-holding with the fingers.
- Enhanced healing potential with the three programs imbedded into the Wand.
- Emits a very precise and focused energy beam into each location which may accelerate the opening of each point, thus shortening the treatment time.
- Accelerates the release of muscle tension when used in the belly of the muscle, or at the muscle tendon connections.
- May be used with any style of acupressure or bodywork.
- May be combined with Chi-Kung, Reiki, Pranic Healing, and other energy techniques.
- May be used by clients at home to do self-healing in between sessions.
- May be used for distant healing.
- Please don't forget your pets! Cats, dogs, horses, etc. can all benefit from (and love to be treated with) the Acu-Wand.
